But this is not the point now in view. What we are at present concerned with is the fact that the pilot commissioners of that part, at a recent meeting, highly disapproved of the use of steam in navigation, insisting that no pi ots should use boats propelled by steam, because to do so would tend to reduce the fees! A New York paper comments on this curious act of a set of nineteenth century officials as "a porformance which ought to cheer the hearts of all who think modern civilization a delusion and a snare." These commissioners are set down being "stanch conservatives as the factory as hands who robbed Sir Richard Arkwright for depriving them of wages and ruining their prospects by substituting machinery for their handiwork." explaination is simple. This is the season when the Hawadan planter makes his contracts with the augar monopoly. The monopoly rules the market on this coast and fixes prices to suit itself. By putting down yellow sugar to 8% cents a pound it forces the planter to lose a nice round sum. About the middle of Jane the price will be put up three cents a pound. So the planter will be out, and the people will pay more and no one will benefit but the sugar ring, which is robbing consumers to the tune of millions annually. METEOROLOGYCAL METORT.

There has been ordered at New Oriesns, in March and April next, storage for 180,000 bushels of wheat, which is to arrive in that city over the new route by way of the Southern Facinc rathread. This is no doubt an experiment, to show the railroad people the cost of the plan and suggest to them the figures they can offer to wheat-shippers. It is possible that they may hereafter secure the transportation of a considerable portion of our wheat, but it is not cortain.

GUITEAU'S GUILT Will be Explated on the Gallows on Jane 30, 1882.

JUDGE CON REFUSES TO GRANT HIM A NEW TRIAL The Wretch Raves Wildly at His Scattence and Save the Lord will Cause the Country to Boll in Blood.

From the Sunday Oregonian Washington, left, 4.—As soon as Judge Cox entered the sourt from and centri was f rurally opened, the prisoner to k his place in the dick and did not repeat his request of yesterday to be allowed to set at conseclor's table.

the Critic became known, he (Stiner) would have to jump the town.

Cel. Corkitil abjected to the evident stiempt to postpone consideration of the motion. If every bit of hearsay goastp was to be dragged in here there would never be any end to the question.

Secvitle replied: He did not ask for postponement; he simply desired to call the attention of the court to information he had received as showing how important it was to investigate this matter with closer security.

Judge Cox immediately began to read from manuscript his decision upon the motion. Reading from various authorities bearing upon the case, Judge Cox descussed at some length the diremstances actending the finding of the newspaper in the room of one of the batiffs of the jury in the case. First, as to the handwriting, there are several circumstances that make it impossible that at least two of the names upon the margin of the paper were written by the gentlemen themselves; second, if as suggested, this paper was lying on the table in the bailiff's room, and if the gentlemen of the jury in willing in albums first tried their pous upon the margin it would amount to nothing. In the face of the sworm added to every member of the jury that they did not see or read papers at any time-during the trial, no one could swear to the fact that juroes did write upon the paper, while they all awear they did not, and there is no reason to doubt their veracity so far as the discovery of new evidence is concerned. As to the evidence to be introduced, and upon this subject there might be some force in the request, but a dozon or more witnesses testified on reid as to his manner and appearance covering, a period of time from March until the commission of the act. The evidence havenght to be introduced upon the subject there might be some force in the request, but a force of interest and appearance covering, a period of time from March until the commission of the act. The evidence haven the subject to be introduced, and upon this ordered and would be merely cumulative are alleged to have been different from his evidence given upon trial, Judge Cox siid nuswork admissions of this character could never be considered as ground for overturning a verdict that only has been obtained through avidence of the very witness who, from coxcapt motives, might seek to reverse a verdict. From all papers presented, Judge Cox summed up. "I am unable to find any reason to grant the motion, which is therefore overruled."

Scoylile—I would like to note an exception to the obtained through avidance of the very witness who, from corrupt motives, might seek to reverse a verifice. From all papers presented, Judge Cox summed up. "I am unable to find any reason to grant the motion, which is therefore operated."

Secoville—I would like to note an exception to the ruling of court.

Col. Corkpill—Yes, your honer, it now becomes my duty——
Secoville—One moment, please. I would like to file in dug form the motion which I referred to you yesterday.

Guitesu, who had been permitted to resume his cent at the counsel table, called out, "If your honor please," I desire to usk it there's any motion that I ought to make to reserve my rights."
Scorille tried to prevent his speaking, but he retorted, "Well I don't want any advantage taken of me. I want to know how long I shall have to prepare my appeal to the court to bane?"
Scoville—Please keep quiet; we haven't reached that yet. that yet.
Guitean (with great excitement)—I would keep quiet. I am here and I propose to do my own talk-

Judge Cox then informed Scoville of the rules and practice applicable to the filing of his excep-tions. After this matter had been arranged, Col. cone. After this matter had been arranged, Col. Ourshill renewed his motion, saying:
"It is now my duty to sak for sontence of court."

Judge Cox-"Stand up! Have you snything to say why sentence should not now be pronounced any why sentence should not now be pronounced upon you?

The prisoner arose, pale, but with lips compressed and desperate determination stamped on his features. In a low and deliberate tone he began, but soon his manner became will and violent, and pounding upon the table he delivered himself of the following harangue; "I am not guilty of the following harangue; "I am not guilty of the charge set forth in the indictancent. It was God's act, and not mine. God will take care of mos and don't let Americans forget it. He will take care of it, and every officer of this government, from executive down to that marshal, taking in every, man of that jury and every member of this homeh will pay for it, and the American nation will roll in blood if my body gues into the ground, and I am hung. The Jews put the despised Gallilean in the grave, and for the time they triumpled but at the destruction of Jerusaloin 40 years after ward the Almighty got even with them. I am not afraid of death. Capital for the Democrata

Washington, Feb. 4.—The democrats are gratified at the dilatory handling of the tariff question by the ways and means committee, as the country will blame the republicant for futing to grant the demand, for a revision of the tariff question will be prominent in the congressional cauvass.

Startwart Issuence all Powerful.

The indicatings are that the administration believes in the policy of putting federal officers where they will de the most good for the party. None but republicans in good standing are getting appointments now, even to minor, postoffices. From every southern state there is a small cirque of republicans here manipulating appointments for those quetoerespectively, with the exception of Virginie, and Mahone's influence with the administration is top picient for any republican to compete successfully with time indeed, Mahone's influence is not continued to Virginie. Stalwart republicans from other southern states are gled to have his assistance in their efforts to get office. The president secura very much impressed with the organization of the liberal or anti-bourbon party in the south, and office seekers from that section are all favocates of that policy. It is the purpose of the republican party to make conditions wherever they can to advantage in the approaching congressional elections in the south, and the administration by this plan expects to office possible democratic gates in the north.

Asserting

tice. You have been defeaded by counsel with a zeal and devotion that merits the highest execution, and I certainly have done my best to secure a fair presentation for your defease. Nothwithstanding all this, you have been found guilty. It would have been a comfort to many people if the verdict of the jury had established the fact that your act was that, of an irresponsible man. It would have left the people a satisfying belief that the crime of political areaseningtion was something foreign to the institutions and devillusation of our country; but the result has denied them that comfort. The country will have to accept the fact that such a crime can be committed, and the court will have to deal with it with the highest penalty known to the criminal code, to serve as an example to others. Your career has been so extraordinary that people might well at times have doubted your sanity, but one cannot but believe that when the orimo was committed you theroughly understood the nature of the trime and its consequences. Guitean—I was acting as God's ment and that you had moral some and conscisues shough to recognize the moral iniquity of such an act.

Prisoner—That's a matter of opinion.

Your own instituous shows that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say that you prayed sgainst it; you say that you thought it might be provented. This shows your conscience warned you against the by our continued and the same the profess of your own consciences. What motive could have laduced you to this act must be smatter of conjecture. Probably men well think that some fanaticiam or morbid decire for selfcould have induced you to this act must be a matter of conjecture. Probably men will think that some fanaticism or morbid desire for self-excitation was the real inspiration for the sot. Your own testimeny seems to controver the theories of your counsel. They have matutained and thought honestly, I bellow, that you were driven against your will by an insang impulse. necessary for me to proquence sentence of court, a that you be taken honce to the continon sail of this district, from whence you came, and there be kept in confinement, and on Friday, the 80th day of June, 1881, you be taken to the place prepared for your execution within the walls of said jail, and there between the hours of 12 and 2 P. M., you be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and may the Lord have necky on your soul."

During the reading Guitean stood apparently unmoved and with his gaze rivoted upon the judge, but when the final words were spoken he struck the table violently and shouted:

"May the Lord have mercy upon your soul. I'd rather stand where I do then where that jury do, and where your honor these. I'm not afraid to die. I stand here as God's man, and God Almighty will curse bovry man who had taken part in pre-uring this unrighteous verdict. Nothing but good has come from the worlder of posterity on my inspiration. I don't ease a snap for the verdict of this corrupt generation, I would cather a thousand times be in my position than in that of those who have hounded me to death. I shall have a glorious flight to death. I shall have glorious flight to death. I shall have glorious depth four, Prisoner After apparently talking himself out, prisoner

After apparently talking himself out, prisoner usual to his brother, and without the slightest trace of excitement, conversed for some minutes before being taken from the court room. When Guitanu arrived at jail he was at once taken to his cell and a guard placed over him. This precation is always observed in cases of prisoners under sentence of death, and will be rigidly adhered to in the Guitanu case both by night and day. Another Letter from Suiteam.
Washington, Sab, S.—Guitsay to day perpetrated another letter on the public in which he refers to the evidence that be stole a shirt, and says he is too high toned for newspaper devils to notice and he wants them to let him alone. He never saw such a disboile spirit. Papers that cursed Gardeld last spring have been deliying him since he was shot and cursing Guiteau, whom God with brains and nerve inspired to remove him.s The delix will ket even with them. It's hard telling how some newspaper men can escape hell, if they continue to slander the Lord's man. He serves notice that he will see any friend or get letters at the jail.
